

ROYAL NEIGHBOR NEWS

Plans are under way for the installation of the new officers of the Torrance Camp of Royal Neighbors on January 16. Among highlights of the evening will be drills executed by the Torrance Drill Team. Refreshments will be served. A large delegation of Neighbors attended the broadcast at KNX as special guests of the Home Makers Club.

Mrs. John Koshak, as a contestant, represented the Torrance Camp and won first honors. A trip through the studio and luncheon at the studio cafeteria also were enjoyed.

School of Instruction For Bethel

Mrs. Mildred Edwards, newly installed deputy grand guardian, International Order of Job's Daughters, was present at the last meeting of Torrance Bethel 50, presided over by Donna Pat Wolf.

An interesting and informative school of instruction, conducted by Mrs. Edwards, was the principal business of the session.

The Bethel was represented at the Masonic installation ceremony Saturday evening when Leonard Babcock was installed as worshipful master. Thirty girls exemplified the closing ceremony of their ritual as their part in a colorful ceremony.

Townsendites

Torrance Townsend Club will entertain tomorrow evening in Women's Clubhouse with a pot-luck supper to be served promptly at 6:30.

Music for old time and modern dancing will begin at 8:15. Everyone is invited to these weekly club affairs, according to the president, James Sellers.

DESERT VISITORS

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Chatten, 1567 West 215th street, entertained Mr. and Mrs. John Keith and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Baldwin at Yucca Valley during last week-end where the Chattens recently acquired a desert retreat.

In searching for a name for the desert home, the Chattens have offered a prize for the person suggesting the winning name. The prize—"The Thing."

Afternoon Ceremony Inducts Gold Star Mothers Officers

Torrance Memorial Chapter of American Gold Star Mothers held installation of officers Wednesday afternoon, January 3, in Torrance's American Legion clubhouse. Mrs. Eleanor Boyd, national president of the organization, as presiding officer was assisted by Long Beach chapter officers.

Speakers for the occasion were J. G. Caldwell and Leo Wagner, the latter just returned from Korea. Displaying unique flags and war souvenirs, besides articles of Korean manufacture and use, Mr. Wagner gave a most interesting talk on Korea.

Guests to various service organizations presented beautiful gifts to the new president. The local chapter gave their retiring president, Mrs. Lucy Vigil, a gift and a corsage, and presented corsages to Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. Erbe.

New officers are: Edith Erbe, Gardena, president; Cleo Barnett, Torrance, first vice president; Lillie Strother, second vice president; Phyllis Hamilton, Lomita, secretary; Jeannette King, Torrance, treasurer; Orpha Wilson, Redondo Beach, chaplain; Lucy Vigil, Redondo Beach, historian; Leona Smith, Torrance, color guard; Regina Cunningham, Torrance, color bearer; Helen Smith, Torrance, color bearer; Gertrude Lawrence, Redondo Beach, sergeant-at-arms; and Beatrice Nye, Gardena, musician.

The organization anticipates a successful year and hopes to incorporate all Gold Star Mothers in this district into its membership. Mothers who have lost sons in Korea are eligible, the newly installed president announced, according to publicity chairman, Jeannette King.

Next meeting will be held as usual in the American Legion Hall, Redondo Beach, at 8:00 o'clock Tuesday evening, Jan. 16.

No. Torrance Card Party

Plans for their monthly card party, set for 8 p.m. tomorrow night, have been completed by the Altar Society of St. Catherine LaBoure Church in North Torrance.

All popular games will be played and there will be refreshments, according to Mrs. Marian Bird, chairman. Location of the church hall is Redondo Beach boulevard—east of Prairie avenue.

Betsy Ross Club Plans Luncheon

Mrs. Florence Viellenave, newly installed president of Betsy Ross Star Club, will preside at the club's first meeting of the year Tuesday, January 16.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 and the business meeting will follow.

Mrs. Edna Babcock will be chairman of arrangements for the occasion.

Youthettes, Register Now!

At a recent meeting of the board of directors of the Torrance Area Youthettes, baton-twirling corps of the Torrance Area Youth Band, regulations of operation were revised to make way for enlarging the corps.

Semi-annual registration for new members will extend thru January at the Torrance Civic Auditorium. All girls in the Harbor area interested in belonging to the Youthettes may register on Saturdays at 2:30.

Age limits for registration are from seven to 14, inclusive. The girls receive many benefits thru membership in the corps.

first and foremost of which is the weekly instruction period when they are taught the basic and advanced phases of baton twirling by Rod White, one of the west coast's best baton artists. Further details may be obtained on the registration date.

Club Hears Parisienne in Delightful Afternoon Talk

Yvonne Redgis, as featured speaker at the Wednesday afternoon meeting of Torrance Woman's Club, held the interest of her audience with her report on current conditions in her native France, and other European countries. Having spent some time in concentration camps during the last war, she had a message of great appeal for the club. In lighter vein, the charming speaker, with her definite French accent, gave highlights of the Paris fashion trends for the coming season.

Early spring blossoms created a lovely centerpiece for the table where Mrs. A. E. Ewalt and Mrs. J. K. Burchfield, poured. Charming hostess chairman for the tea hour was Mrs. John K. Steinbaugh.

At the business meeting presided over by Mrs. B. Taylor Whitney, the club voted a substantial amount to the Dr. W. I. Laughon Memorial Fund.

Next meeting will be an informal luncheon at 12:30, January 17.

The president represented the club at a presidents' conference on December 29 at Federated headquarters, she reported, and will attend a parliamentary law conference today, at the same Hobart boulevard address.

Isbells Welcome Second Son

Mr. and Mrs. L. Milton Isbell of 1516 Beech avenue are being congratulated on the birth of their third child, a six pound, four ounce son, Gary Lawson, born December 30 in Torrance Memorial Hospital.

Other children of the couple are Donna, 11, and Milt Jr., 4. The children's father is executive secretary of Torrance Y.M.C.A. Grandparents are Col. J. L. Isbell and J. H. Lawson, both of Fort Worth, Texas.

MR. AND MRS. LELLAND GRIFFIN

Busy Session Thursday for Waleria PTA

Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent of schools, was an unexpected visitor at the Waleria PTA board meeting held in the new school. The meeting, conducted by Mrs. R. T. McNulty, president, featured plans for representation at the spring conference Monday in Compton, and the state convention in San Diego, set for May 2, 3, and 4. Founders day plans also were discussed and the date set for February 8.

Lelland Griffin Nuptials Incentive for Festivities

In an impressive candlelight ceremony performed in First Baptist Church, Las Vegas, Nevada, Miss Shirley Ann Stitzel, daughter of Mrs. Naomi Huff of 519 Harbor Hills, Lomita, became the bride of Lelland H. Griffin, USCG of Lomita. Rev. Walter Bishop officiated in the presence of the immediate families of the principals.

Attendants were Miss Sue Epperheimer and Delbert Heath, of Lomita.

The attractive bride chose as her wedding attire a teal blue suit with brown accessories and a corsage of roses. Miss Epperheimer wore a blue suit, navy accessories and gardenias.

Mrs. Griffin is a senior at Narbonne High School, where her husband received his diploma in 1949. He is stationed at United States Coast Guard Base on Terminal Island.

An evening party held at Palos Verdes drive and Western avenue and attended by 125 guests, complimented the newlyweds. Mr. and Mrs. Griffin, and a lovely shower given earlier at the home of Miss Epperheimer, 26428 Athena avenue, Harbor City, was an enjoyable affair for honoree and guests.

At the shower, tiny bridal bouquets were favors and sandwiches, ice cream cake and punch were served to the honoree and her mother, and Misses Ann Laurson, Karen Dean, Maxine Sandoval, Wanda Griffin, Louise Anderson, Erma Parks, Eva Jo Hilliker, Shirley Jacobson, John Mickles, Gloria Lavazzari, Nadine Stitzel, Sue Epperheimer, Betty Spangler, Janie Oxford, Dorothy Epperheimer and Mrs. Melba Lockett.

New Name For Camp Fire Girls

Plans for a roller skating party were made at the last meeting of Tanda Okibi Camp Fire Girls, held in the home of their leader, Mrs. O. A. Mooncyham.

Having completed their doll assignments, the girls will now devote their time to plaques and shell work.
